I went to the woods because I wished to live deliberately, to front only the essential facts of life and see if I could not learn what it had to teach, and not, when I came to die, discover that I had not lived.

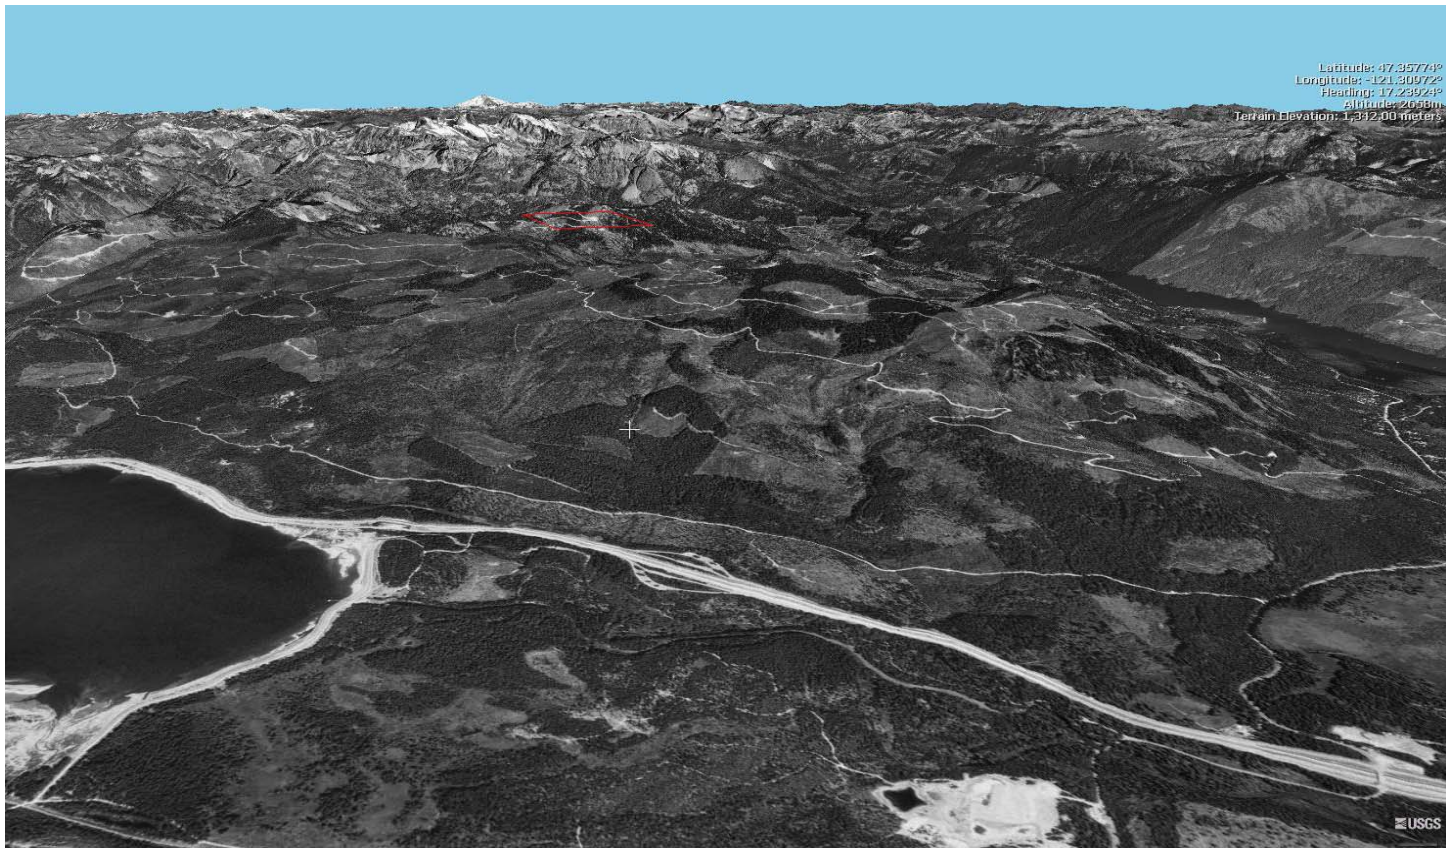

- Henry David Thoreau, Walden (1854)

Along with this quote, the clients described their future cabin with the following three words: modern rustic, and cozy. The mountain retreat will be a place for the owners, with their friends and restaurant staff, to use as a get-away from the city. In the words of our client, "it will be a place to go and be a lazy bum."

Nestled into the mountain hillside, the cabin will be a treehouse with a dramatic view of the surrounding evergreen canopy. A microturbine located in an adjacent creek will provide hydroelectric power.
